

International Politics Research Seminar
Schedule for Semester 2. Academic year 2016-2017

All events are held in the Main Hall of International Politics 4.10pm-5.40

Feb 2nd, 2017 – External Speaker: Sir Emyr Jones Parry. President of Aberystwyth University and former UK Permanent Representative to the UN. Title of presentation: ‘The challenge of implementing Brexit and the implications for British Foreign policy’.

Feb 9th - PhD student presentation: Danielle House. Title of presentation: ‘Memorialising Mexico's disappeared: living amongst absence.’ Discussant: Dr. Huw Lewis

Feb 16th – PhD student presentation: Alistair Markland. Title of presentation: ‘The Epistemic Limits of Transnational Conflict-Related Advocacy.’ Discussant: Dr. Gerry Hughes

BREAK IN SCHEDULE DUE TO ISA CONFERENCE WEEK

March 2nd – PhD student presentation: Alexander Mack. Title of presentation: ‘Anxiety in the Anglosphere: A Sociological Analysis of Migration’. Discussant: Prof Jenny Edkins

March 9th – PhD student presentation: Katarina Kusic. Title of presentation: ‘Encountering Intervention: Governmentality and the politics of improvement in Serbia’. Discussant: Prof Richard Beardsworth

March 16th - PhD student presentation: Christine Andra. Title of presentation: ‘The problem of war and the will to knowledge: the example of the Carnegie Endowment's "Balkan Commission", 1912-1914.’ Discussant: Dr. Charalampos Efstathopoulos

March 23rd – PhD student presentation: Nick Morgan. Title: ‘Theorizing the Sub-State Nation: Governmentality, Subjectivity and Identity in Wales’. Discussant: Dr. Kris Stoddart

March 30th - Staff presentation: Dr. Brieg Powel. Title of presentation: ‘The ages of war: problematizing IR’s benchmark dates with military historical sociology’.

April 6th – Rachel White (Yale University/Aberystwyth University). Title of presentation: 'Resistance Theology: Christians and the French State, from Occupation to Decolonization'

May 4th – Staff presentation: Dr. Jeff Bridoux: Title of presentation: ‘Despondent or resilient? The Future of the Liberal World Order’