

International Politics Research Seminars

Semester 2. Academic Year 2019-2020

30 January/Ionawr, 4.30pm – Prof Mary King (University for Peace; AU Honorary Fellow), Dr Rachel Julian (Leeds Beckett University), Dr Birgit Poppo (AU), Suzanne Klein Schaarsberg (AU), Dr. Berit Bliesemann de Guevara (AU) ‘Non-violence in International Politics: Towards a New Turn?’ (interactive session).

6 February/Chwefror, 4.30pm – Paul Blamire, ‘Liberating Ontology? James H. Cone in conversation with international political thought’.

Discussant/Trafodwr: Dr. Huw Lewis.

13 February/Chwefror, 4.30pm – Emma Kast, ‘Meritocracy and Political Economy’. Discussant/Trafodwr: Dr. Charalampos Efstathopoulos.

20 February/Chwefror, 4.30pm – Dr. James Vaughan – ‘The Road to Perdition: Antisemitism and political warfare in Jeremy Corbyn’s Labour Party, 2015-2019’.

27 February/Chwefror, 6.30pm – Mark Drakeford (First Minister of Wales) ‘After Brexit – What Next for Wales?’ CWPS Annual Lecture

5 March/Mawrth, 4.30pm – Tom Vaughan, ‘The Nuclear Counter-Technopolitics of the African National Congress: Global Nuclear Order and the South African Liberation Struggle’. Discussant/Trafodwr: Dr. Warren Dockter

12 March/Mawrth, 4.30pm – Doug Pryer, ‘Turning the Blind Eye’: The Impact of U.S. Military-Led State-Building on Political Corruption in Occupied Countries’. Discussant/Trafodwr: Dr. Alistair Shepherd.

19 March/Mawrth, 4.30pm – Dr. Christine Andrä & Dr. Berit Bliesemann de Guevara, ‘(Un-)Stitching Gazes: Exploring the reincorporation of former FARC guerrilla in Colombia’.

26 March/Mawrth, 6pm (pre-lecture reception from 5.30pm) – General Petr Pavel (Chairman of the NATO Military Committee [2015-18]). Title: TBC.
DDMI Annual Lecture.

23 April/Ebrill, 4.30pm - Faten Jaballah, 'The motivations of young Tunisians to join ISIS'. Discussant/Trafodwr: Dr Kamila Stullerova.

30 April/Ebrill, 4.30pm – Dr. Birgit Poopuu, 'Impossible People' in an Impossible Revolution: When Nonviolent and Radical Politics Is Met with Violence'.